Certified Revenue Cycle Representative (CRCR) Recertification

Congratulations on maintaining your Certified Revenue Cycle Representative (CRCR) Certification. Successfully completing the CRCR recertification exam demonstrates that you have mastered a body of knowledge within the healthcare revenue cycle arena for revenue cycle staff and associated departments.

A new certificate is not awarded for recertification. Your next renewal date is May 31, 2028. You may verify your next maintenance due date in your HFMA profile under "My development" and "Certifications".

Note: Recertification is required for the Certified Revenue Cycle Representative (CRCR) every 2 Years. Reminders will be sent closer to your next recertification date.

Please contact inquiry@hfma.org or call (800) 252-4362 with any questions.

Again, congratulations on the renewal of your HFMA CRCR certification.

Sincerely,

HFMA Learning and Education Team
